BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

States that during the period of his absence on duty with H. H. the Maharaja and suite on tour to Northern India the Comptroller has disallowed Rs 150 the allowance of Rs 500/- attached to the Office of Senior Surgeon and requests that for the said temporary deputation duty, he shd be given an extra allowance in addn to his pay and allowance as Senior Surgeon

The question dealt with in all these files is whether the local allowance of Rs 500/ attached to the office of the Senior Surgeon during the period between 20th Oct. 06. and 24th Jan. 07 - when Major Drake Brockman was on special duty with His Highness and Dr. P.S. Achyuta Rao officiated, is claimable by the former after the latter. Under art 62. C.S.R & SR the deputation having exceeded a month, Major Brockman is not entitled to draw any part the local allowance, and under art 81 he can claim only the pay & salary and not the local allowance also. As was decided in ~~Dr. Achyuta Rao's case~~ a former case when Dr P.S. Achyuta Rao officiated as Senior Surgeon, he can claim Rs 500 during his present tenure also. While as regards Major Brockman, a deputation allowance of 1/5 of salary of Rs 10 a day is all that can be granted to him under art 81. ~~He is~~ The allowance of Rs 190 (1/5 of 950) thus claimable under the rules is much less than what he would have dress had he not gone on special duty, and the case is therefore one for special treatment -

The present difficulty is mainly due to the fact that the post of Senior Surgeon does not carry any fixed pay but varies according to the grade pay or salary of ~~his~~ the incumbent -, and as a local allowance is attached to the post -

Since this allowance is not to be reckoned as ~~part of pay~~ included in 'pay' or salary, it is clear that Dr. Asheyton has is entitled to the same and not Major Brockman -

The Comptroller is therefore to order in accordance with the latter's bill for Rs. and he has intimated thus to Govt. in his letter No. 3886/653 dt 11-1-07 as ~~proposed~~ and has asked his sanction for the disbursement of the allowance in Govt. 1024 in the paper under disposal in the linked file - no 11. of 1906.

Since the post of Durban Physician is vacant it is a point for consideration whether Major. Brockman may not be reckoned to have held temporarily the post and his pay regulated accordingly - ~~from then~~ it is Rs 1400 p.m. which is only Rs 50 less than the pay and allowances (£50 + 500) now being provisionally passed should pending the receipt of the communication from the Residency in the matter

In this case art 81 CSR does not apply and no deputation allowance would then be admissible as contended by Major Brockman -
In any case a reference to the Resy in regard to the emoluments of Major Brockman during the period in question appears necessary -
Submitted for any orders -
6.3.07

I would not advocate a reference to the Residency until other alternatives are considered and rejected
I am afraid the procedure adopted in the present case was somewhat unusual and inconvenient When Major Drake Brockman was asked to accompany His Highness on duty, it was not quite necessary (in my humble opinion) to have appointed under the 'Rules to regulate' as Senior Surgeon. Major D-B. could have ~~continued~~ been regarded as continuing in his own appointment the current duties of this office being left to be attended to by the Personal Assistant to the Surgeon General "for" & in the ~~absence~~ absence of the Senior Surgeon, as a matter of office arrangement under the standing orders of Govt. This is in fact the arrangement adopted when the Senior Surgeon (or other head of a department) has to leave Bangalore on tour.

The difficulty now is, that we have to treat Major Dralle Brockmann as placed on special duty as Durbar Physician, — an appointment which required the previous sanction of Govt — & Govt, could attach to it a salary higher than what it usually carries in order not to cause loss of emoluments to him.

It is clear that Major Drake Brockman should not be made to suffer for having accompanied His Highness on tour. He should get the full pay & allowances. It was a mistake to have directed that Dr Alexander should not accompany but as he has proceeded he should also get the allowances attached to the appointment. He will have to be specially sanctioned. Prepared note for submission to His Highness

Submitted to His Highness.

During the absence of Major Drake-Brockman I.M.S., Senior Surgeon, on duty with His Highness the Maharaja at Calcutta, Mr.P.S.Achyuta Rao was appointed to officiate for him. Major Brockman continued on special duty from 20th December 1906 to 24th January 1907.

The Comptroller on the analogy of a previous order which authorized him to pass the local allowance of Rs 500/- attached to the office of Senior Surgeon to Mr.Achyuta Rao during his officiating tenure of appointment as Senior Surgeon, and under the ordinary rules applicable to local allowances, admitted a claim for the allowance made in Mr.Achyuta Rao's pay bill for December 1906. Subsequently, Major Brockman, having also claimed a similar allowance, for the same period the Comptroller seeks orders as to which of the officers the allowance in question should be passed.

Major Drake-Brockman in officially representing the loss he would be put to if the allowance is withheld, states that he should get an extra allowance for the deputation and asks that he might be given the pay of the Durbar Surgeon in addition to his grade pay.

It is clear that Major Drake-Brockman should not be made to suffer for having accompanied His Highness on tour. He should get the full pay and allowances which he should have got as Senior Surgeon (Rs 950+500,local allce).

The difficulty would have been avoided if Dr.Achyuta Rao had not been appointed to officiate during Dr.Brockman's absence. But in the pressure of work just before leaving for Calcutta, I did not foresee these complications and so passed the order that Dr.Achyuta Rao should officiate.

It would however be rather hard if Dr Achyuta Rao is deprived of the local allowance to which he is entitled under the rules and under that order One way out of the difficulty will be to treat Dr.Drake Brockman as having been Durbar Physician during the period but this involves a reference to the Residency- the Government of India, and this course does not seem to be suitable.

As suggested by the Secretary the better course is to treat Dr.Drake Brockman as having continued as Senior Surgeon during his absence at Calcutta, to modify the order of 19th December 1906 so as to treat Dr.Achyuta Rao as having been on special duty in the office of the Senior Surgeon and to sanction to him a special allowance of Rs 500 per mensem during the period.

This may be approved.

SIR,

I have the honour to state, that I was desired by the Dewan Saheb to proceed in Medical charge of His -- Highness & suite on tour to Northern India on December -- 19th last at the request of His Highness and that the next Senior Officer in the Department (Viz., Dr. P.S.Achyuta Row) was directed to temporarily take charge of my appoint -ment during my absence, for which he was gazetted to draw all my local allowance of Rs.500/- (Vide Government Order No.5262-4/Medl 111-06-3 dated 18-12-1906 and Notification No.5281/Medl 198-06-1 dated 19-12-1906) which amount, I may add, has been duly deducted from my pay for January -- by the Comptroller, so that by going on deputation with -- His Highness, I have been a net loser of Rs.500/- per mensem- I would beg to submit that my sole appointment under the Mysore Government is that of Senior Surgeon and Sanitary Commissioner and that a separate appointment and provision exist for that of Durbar Physician- Under the circumstances I have the honour to urge that I am entitled -- to draw that officer's pay in addition to my grade pay -- of rank whenever I am called upon to forfeit the allowances of my real appointment as in the case referred to- as I -- was not actually gazetted out of the appointment of Senior Surgeon and Sanitary Commissioner by the Government, I -- hold that the Comptroller had no right to dock my allowance but as I was only detailed for temporary deputation duty, my pay and allowances should have remained in statu quo ante and that I should be given an extra allowance in addition at any adequate -- rate the Government like to fix for this special deputation duty- I beg to express a hope that this matter may receive the early consideration and orders of Government.

to
